SHEFFIELD WEDNESDAY

BLUESCENE

Good evening ladies and gentlemen and welcome to Westfield Lane for tonights pre-season friendly against Sheffield Wednesday. We also extend a warm welcome to our neighbours from Sheffield and hope they enjoy the game.

Well, now that all the drama and excitement of the World Cup is over its back to 'the bread and butter stuff' and our second of seven pre-season matches. The first, on Tuesday evening, brought the Blues a 2-1 success at Selby Town with Mark Hancock scoring two penalties. The first after 28 minutes followed Gary Hatto being brought down and the second straight after half time being given for the handling of a goalbound shot by a defender.

Ian Thompson has, at the moment, almost all last season's squad with the exception of Myles Thorpe who has left to join Emley and James O'Donnell. On Tuesday evening there was also several new faces along with one old one - Glyn Yates. Hopefully Ian can find someone capable of putting the ball in the back of the net on a regular basis, something that has been lacking for a while, and may spur us on to bigger and better things.

Back to tonights game. Little is known of what quality of side the Owls will be fielding tonight but the fact that they are also due to play Peterborough Utd. tonight suggests a reserve or Under 21 side. No matter who the personnel are they are bound to give us a tough test, especially since beating Hallam 5-1 earlier this week.

Enjoy the game and please spread the word and bring along a few friends - it could make all the difference.
